ver," or pneumonia.

ver," or pneumonia.

ver aliment they point to, you sure that it is best to get rid of a soon as possible by putting your to rights, regulating, to ling up avigorating stomach, liver and and thus purifying your blood stem and enabling it to throw off seek.

he above purpose, medical science yet produced no better agent than scree's Golden Medical Discovery, of a secret, or patent medicine, all edients being printed on the bottle ar. It is the prescription of a well-and experienced physician. It is no alcohol or other harmful, orming agents—chemically pure, effined glycerine being used both yeut and preservative of the medicatracts of which it is composed, nade from the following native, an medicinal roots: Golden Scal acon's root, Stone root, Bloodroot, like root and Black Cherrybark, dicinal properties of these are exity exact and peculiar processes a use of chemically pure, triple-glycerine, of proper strength, and as of apparatus and appliances for this special purpose, and in way as to produce a most perfect bentical compound.

the superior curative properties of the superior curative properties

Coe M. D., of New York, we extract the followin: "Hydrastis (Golden Seal) exercises a especial influence over mucous surfaces. Upon the liver it acts with equal of tainty and efficacy. As a cholagogue liver invigerator), it has few equals. In affections of the spicen, and abdominal viscera generally, it is an efficient and reliable remedy. Also in scrofula, glandular diseases generally, cutaneous eruptions, indigestion, debility, diarring and dysentery, constipation, piles and all morbid and critical discharges."

Dr. Coe further says: "Hydrastis (Golden Seal) is also of inestimable value in the treatment of chronic derangements of the liver. It seems to exercise an especial influence over the hepatic (liver) structure generally, resolving dissentently cholagogue (liver accelerator). It is eminently cholagogue (liver accelerator). The Common Sense Medical Advisor, is seminently cholagogue (liver accelerator). The Common Sense Medical Advisor, is seminently cholagogue (liver accelerator). The common Sense Medical Advisor, is seminently cholagogue (liver accelerator). The common Sense Medical Advisor, is seminently cholagogue (liver accelerator). The common Sense Medical Advisor, is seminently cholagogue (liver accelerator). The common Sense Medical Advisor, is seminently cholagogue (liver accelerator). The common Sense Medical Advisor, is seminently cholagogue (liver accelerator). The common Sense Medical Advisor, is seminently cholagogue (liver accelerator). The common Sense Medical Advisor, is seminently cholagogue (liver accelerator). The common Sense Medical Advisor, is seminently cholagogue (liver accelerator). The common Sense Medical Advisor, is seminently cholagogue (liver accelerator). The common Sense Medical Advisor, is seminently cholagogue (liver accelerator). The common Sense Medical Advisor, is seminently cholagogue (liver). The common Sense Medical Advisor, is seminently cholagogue (liver). The common Sense Medical Advisor, is seminently cholagogue (liver). The common Sense Medical Advisor, is se

A Man Who Didn't Know How to Spell His Own Name

In fact, "ache all over?" Have not child sensations? Appetite Tongue furred? Bad taste, espen morning? Bad, foul breath? In susce, or "sickness at stom-casionally? Feel weak, tired, discouraged? Sove are symptoms common to and liver derangements and tede attacks of fever und malections, grip, bronchitis, and r," or pneumonia.

The first Cured."

Prof. John M. Seudder, M. D., of Cincinnati, says of Golden Seal: "It stimulates the digestive processes and increases the assimilation of food. By these means the blood is enriched. " "In relation to its general effects on the system, there is such general unanimity of opinion. It is universally regarded as the tonic useful in all debilitated states."

As to Stone root, the American Densators of the American Densators of the American Densators of the assimilation of food. By these means the blood is enriched. " "In relation to its general effects on the system that the blood is enriched." "In relation to its general effects on the system. The blood is enriched. The blood is en as the tonic useful in all debilitated states."

As to Stone root, the AMERICAN DISPENSATORY says: "In diseases of stomach and intestines—improves appetite, promotes flow of gastric jnice; tonic effect upon organs involved. A good remedy in indigestion, dyspepsia chronic gastritis, increasing the secretion from kidneys and skin."

Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says of Stone root; "In catarrhal gastritic (inflammation of stomach) where the circulation is defective, it, either alone or combined with hydrastis, is of first importance. They increase the appetite and greatly improve the digestion and assimilation of food. * * * Is a heart tonic of direct and permanent influence. Excellent in the bicycle heart, in rheumatic inflammation and clergyman's sore throat."

tonic of direct and permanent influence. Excellent in the bicycle heart, in theu matter of the medical of which it is composed, de from the following native, medicinal roots: Golden Seal on's root, Stone root, Bloodroot, root and Black Cherrybark, cinal properties of these are exy exact and peculiar processes use of chemically pure, triple yeerline, of proper strength, and of apparatus and appliances or this special purpose, and in ay as to produce a most perfect interest of the above ingredients, we can room here for a very few of the xtracts from standard medical the more complete information in you, free of charge, in pame, if you will send your address, ritten on postal card or by letter. R. V. Plerce, Buffalo, N. Y., quest for the same, ien Seal root Prof. Bartholow, on Medical College, says: "Very a stomachic tonic (stomach in atouic (weak stomach) dyscures gastric catarrh (catarrh ch) and headaches accompanyame. " " Chronic catarrh ch) and malarial origin." " It is well to know what one takes into the stomach whether in the form of food, drink or medicine. " "Hydrastis (Golden Seal). " It is well to know what one takes into the stomach whether in the form of food, drink or medicine. " Prescription with weakening diseases peculiar to women. In all cases of pelvic catarrh (atarrh ch) and headaches accompanyame. " " Chronic catarrh chi in atouic (weak stomach) dyscures gastric catarrh (catarrh ch) and headaches accompanyame. " " Chronic catarrh ch) or medicine. " "Hydrastis (Golden Seal). " It is well to know what one takes into the stomach whether in the form of food, drink or medicine. " Promatical origin." " The stration of the original processes in the company of the processor. The same little book of extraction of the processor. The same little book of extraction of the processor. The same little book of extraction of the processor. The same little book of extraction of the processor. The same little book of extraction of the same little book of extraction of the processor. The same little book of extr

· BERKERE BERKERE BERKERE

Spaniard than either. [Original.] My grandfather was a private in the Mexican war, and I got this story his race, Kelly picked himself up and cried then because I wanted to receive I was with that army which, under Scott, landed at Vera Cruz and marched to the City of Mexico, fighting one battle after another by the way. In the -th artillery was a sergeant named Kelly, who was one of the best disciplinarians among noncommissioned officers I ever knew. Any man under his command must "toe the mark" or take the consequences. Kelly was an Irishman and had served in the British army. He was a natural soldier and, like most such, was not fitted for anything else. At Vera Cruz a man who said that his parents were or had been Ameriaand Gallagher was in it with the rest company has disposed of all its boldings cans, though he had been born and had always lived in Mexico, wanted to enlist in the United States army. He spoke English with a broken Spanish accent, but any one under the circumstances would have done that. He was cepted, put in the battery with Kelv and fell under the sergeant's orders. he recruit gave his name as Gallaer, which denoted Irish extraction, nd Kelly looked for him to have at ast heard something about the Emald Isle, but he was woefully Ignoat of it. For this reason, possibly, sergeant was not prepossessed in favor and put on the serews of dislibe in his case to the fullest extent. igher bore the sergeant's severe kes at his errors at first with pae, but he looked as much like a dard as an Irishman, and he could misa pugnacious blood in either At any rate the sergeant worried ato a state of frenzy. We enlistthought we saw dislike for the in Kelly and condemned him or detailed bim for this duty er than he should have done. when Gallagher had been de-I for the same isnoble work three in succession he refused to serve. words between him and Kelly re-I, and the affair ended by the reknocking the sergeant down. I this quarrel, and I made up my a that Gallagher had drawn Irish night with the atmosphere he had tillery in the Mexican army athed from the day he was born.

THE RESERVE SECTION OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PRO

The Times' Daily Short Story.

king advantage of his position to his spite. There was one act mfair. He had noticed that Gal-me under my observation which was especially ludisposed to do duty"-that is, he winced at about picking up old papers.

stumps and such like, and the quietly called for a corporal of the it." guard to take the mutinous recruit to about her uncle, the guardhouse. It occurred to me that he had been trying to prod the man into mutiny in order to have the pleasure of penning him up. As Gallagher was marched away I noticed a peculiar expression on his face, an expression that

We marched next day, and Gallagher walked, with other prisoners, under guard. We seen came upon the Mexiof us. I remember seeing one of the in this state. junior lieutenants telling him to "go The company is understood to be conin" and he would help him by testifytrolled by the Standard. ing to the fact on his trial for mutiny. But that was the last I saw of the mutineer during the fight, and after it among the missing. When I suggested that he had died the death of a soldler, Kelly's wrath exploded. "Killed, the spalpeen! D'ye be thinkin' there was a bullet fired by the Mexicans that would 'a' touched the

"What do you mean, sergeant?" "Oh, go 'long wid yez. D'ye think Oi wouldn't know any o' the Gallaghers? The miserable Spaniard didn't even know how to spell his own Irish name." We laughed at the sergeant's prejudice against the poor fellow, who must have been buried by those of another corps who didn't know him, and thought no more about the matter.

Our work had now commenced in earnest, and we had no time for anything but fighting till we had captured the City of Mexico. Our battery was a good deal cut up by the concentrated fire of several Mexican batteries on heights of Chapultepec. Kelly rowed that the Aztec, as he had called Gallagher, had come back from purgatory and entered the body of the officer commanding the battery that had done us the most damage. When the fight was over Kelly went up the heights, and later we saw him coming back, with a body slung over his shoulder. When he renched the battery he threw a dead Mexican officer on the ground and exclaimed: "Ol knew Ol'd git 'Im some time. It's the spaineen that was spyin' on us under pretense o' bein' a Gallagher. Oi knew he was a spy, but Oi couldn't prove it" There, true enough, was the body of the man who had called himself Galwith his mother's milk and Span- legher in the uniform of a major of ar-E. T. WARREN.

OWN STORY A TIME OF PAIN AND PERIL

Terranova Girl Witness In New York's Murder Trial

REMARKABLE CONFESSION

With a Flushed Face She Lays Bare Every Detail - A Woman Spectator Swoons at the Recital.

New York, May 23,-After several lelays Josephine Terranova, took the stand in her own behalf yesterday. The Terranova girl looked tired, and leasted her head on her hands, with her elbows on the table, as if she was completely exhausted.

Mrs. Melehoro Farello, her sister-in-

She told of a visit to the Riggio's writes: house before the marriage, at which the subject of the girl going to confessional was discussed Riggio started to take the girl's confession himself, according to the witness. "Riggio then put a towel around his shoulders and most constant pain, and for two or three let the ends hang down on his chest," she said, "and said that she should not confess to the priest because he would teach her wrong things. Riggio said: "I will be your confessor." T then took her to church, and Riggio followed us. He hid in the church and waited for us to come out. After the priest had heard her confession he ried that she wanted the communion." The young defendant went on the witness stand at noon. She had me in-terpreter and had no difficulty in reply-ing to questions in English. One woman ainted while her story was being told. The defendant said shis came to this untry when 8 years old going to live with her uncle and aunt, the Reggios I didn't go to church or school," she said, "for seven years after I came to Amer-she was asked.

As the girl told of her uncle's treatment a woman spectator fainted and fellfrom her chair. The court proceedings were interrupted by the results. were interrupted by the resulting commotion. The girl hesitated in giving her testimony, telling her counsel that she was ashamed to speak of it. She said that her aunt had forced her to obry her uncle and had beaten her, and

The girl said that she was never perics, he looked under the spirit of re- mitted to play with the other children bellion more like'n descendant of the and was forbidden to talk English or as-Aztecs than the Irish and more like a sociate with the boarders in the box She said she wanted to go to her mothe Instead of giving vent to rage, as he but was not permitted to. Speaking of her confession to the priest who refused was bound to do by the traditions of to give her communion, she said: "I

OIL COMPANY GETS OUT.

The Republic Decides to Withdraw from Columbus, O., May 23,-The fight of denoted self condemnation. He was Attorney General Ellis against the evidently much dissatisfied with him-Standard Oil Company has resulted in self for letting the sergeant get the the Republic Oil Company, a concern organized under the laws of New York, getting out of the state. The company has its Ohio headquarters in Cleveland and yesterday announcement was made cans, and our little army deployed for a fight. The ordinary routine of army of State Laylin that it has withdrawn life vanishes with the sound of firing. from Ohio. The reason given is that the

Where Czar's Baubles Are.

Moscow, May 22,-The robes of the was over no one saw him. He was state and the sword and standard of state, used at the ceremony of the opening of parliament at the Winter Palace on May 10, were yesterday placed in the museum of the Kremlin for safe keeping. The crown, globe, and sceptre remain at the Hermitage Palace in St. Petersburg, which contains the most important of the imperial collections.

COD LIVER OIL.

It almost makes you sick to think of it, but it isn't nearly as bad as it used to be. The improved method of refining it makes it much easier to take, and when made into Scott's Emulsion almost the D. D. Convince you we have arranged with every one can take it. Most children like it and all children that are not robust are benefited by it. When the doctor says "Take cod liver oil," he FREE generally means Scott's Emulsion; ask him if he doesn't. They know it is more easily digested and better than the plain oil. SCOTT & BOWNE, 400 Pour! Street, New York.

TELLS HER CRISIS OF GIRLHOOD MORE THAN

Mer Emma Cole Says that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has Sayed Her Life and Made Her Well.

girls have been sacrificed just as they were ripening into womanhood! How many irregularities or displacements have been developed at this important period, resulting in years of suffering!

A mother should come to her child's aid at this critical time and remember that Lydin E. Pinkham's Vegetable law, was the first witness. Her testimony had almost entirely to do with the girl's religious training. The witness said she had had practically none, and did not even know who God was.

Miss Emma Cole of Tuliahoma, Tenn.,

"When fourteen years of age I suffered almost constant pain, and for two or three years I had screness and pain in my side, headaches and was dizzy and nervous, and doctors all falled to help me.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended, and after taking it my health began to improve rapidly, and I think it saved my life. I sincerely hope my experience will be a help to other girls who are passing from girlhood to womanhood, for I know your Compound will do as much for them."

If you know of any young girl who is said he could not give her communion, because she did not know any religion and did not know who God was. She to write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn. Mass. If you know of any young girl who is and she will receive free advice which will put her on the right road to a strong, healthy and happy womanhood, Mrs. Pinkham is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Plukham and for twenty-five years has been advising sick women free of charge.

Unitariana in Session.

Boston, May 23, Several meetings My uncle and aunt wouldn't let were held vesterday in connection with me. I wanted to go. I did everything the annual auniversary week of the washing and scrubbing. Sometimes there were 10, 11 and 16 boarders in Kings' Chapel in commemoration of ministers who have died during the year. ton Street Church chapel a meeting of "That is what I am on trial here the Berry street conference was field, about," she added.

swore Eczema then because I wanted to receive She said she had told the priest Suffering

Captain Suffered for Years

Captain Suffered for Years

"North Abingdon, Mass., June 19, 1903.

For nearly three years I was a great sunerer with what the doctors called weeping cerema. I employed doctors and specialists and I grew worse. I had to walk the floor nights, sometimes praying and sometimes swearing. Anyone who never had it can form no idea how I suffered. The doctors told me I was suffering all the tortures of hell. I tried all the old woman's whims. I got no help, and there wasn t a day in that time, nearly three years, that I ht we not tried something. Men and women were into the fields and woods and gathered herbs and barks and steeped them. I could do no work. Last January I accidentally saw your advertisement. The next day I got a coulde. The first application benefitted greatly, and I sleep tall night and every night since, something I had not done for nearly three years. I can never tell half. An wene will have to call at my home, Randolph street. North Abingdon, if they wish to hear one-tenth. I wish everyone to know that D. D. Is the most wonders. I could not go to church for hearly three years. I now so and can also do ny work.

CAPT. JOSEPH FRITZ."

If you are suffering the tortures of the damned don't hesitate, but go TODAY, NOW, to your druggist and invest $1.00. It will not be an expenditure, but an investment in happiness.

WE PROVE IT

the D. D. D. Co., so that any sufferer from any skin disease can get direct from the D. D. D. Co's laboratory a large free sample bottle of D. D. D. prescrip-tion together with 32 page new pampu-let on skin diseases and free advice on our particular case from the world's greatest skin specialists.

RICKERT & WELLS.

SAMPLE GOUPON MAIL THIS PROMPTLY.

D. D. D. CO. Medical Department. 116-120 Michigan St., Sulte 457, Chicago Please send me free prepaid a large six ample bottle of D. D. D. pamphiet au consultation blank. For ... years I flave seen afflicted with a skin disease either and have never used D. D. D.

MILE LONG

How many lives of beautiful young Petition for Commutation of Tucker's Sentence

FILED WITH GOV. GUILD

It Bears Over 115,000 Names-Together With Petition Goes Medical Examiner Harris' Statement Regarding Knife.

Boston, May 23 .- Names to the number of 115,555 are appended to the petition which was sent to Governor Guild yesterday, asking him to commute to life imprisonment the sentence of death imposed upon Charles L. Tucker for the murder of Mabel Page at Weston in March, 1904. Of the signers 80,860 are men and 35,695 are women. An express wagon was necessary to transport the petiton to the state house. It was encased in a large box. If stretched out in one piece it would measure a mile

Many thousands of names outside of the state have been received by Tucker's counsel, Valicy, Innes and Mansfield, but they are not included in the Governor Guild left the state house early and the memorial will not be considered by him until after Judges Holden and Sherman of the superior court have passed upon the new evidence, which Tucker's counsel say they have iscovered and which they claim will be an important point in the case.

This evidence includes the declaration of Medical Examiner Francis Harris. that his previous testimony that the knife found on Tucker could have caused he wounds on Mabel Page's body was correct, and that he is now convinced that a double-edged knife and not the one-edged Tucker weapon made the fatal BUTTER AND EGGS PLENTY

The petition was forwarded yesterday in order that the governor and council consent of the governor.

14 ANDOVER STUDENTS EXPELLED BY FACULTY

"Do you remember one winter morn- an address was made by the Rev. Seth Penalty for Ducking of Hotel Proprietor ing when you were about 11½ -years C. Bench of Wayland. At the Arling:

—Talk of Strike by Students of -Talk of Strike by Students of Phillips Andover Academy.

Lawrence, Mass., May 23.—Fourteen students at Phillips Andover academy were expelled from the school yesterday. afternon as a result of the investiga tion which has been made by the faculty into the ducking of Proprietor James Milton Stewart of the Andover Inn last Friday night.

The cases of eight other students are

"We used every one alike," said Principal Stearns. "All the boys were examined. Those who admitted participating the affair, either to laying hands on Mr. Stewart or attempting to las hands on him were expelled."

The fourteen boys received verbal no tice from the principal that they had a shade lower. Poultry is wanted, been expelled. At the same time telegrams were sent to their fathers announcing the decision of the faculty.

Andover is in a ferment over the af fair. It has been threatened by the student body that expulsion of any students would result in a large majority of the boys leaving the school. What action the students will take is a prob-

PLATT RESENTS.

Not a Senatorial Nonentity He Declares.

New York, May 23. Senator Thomas Platt was in an assertive frame of nonentity, and that he had done nothing in behalf of the railway rate bill. At his office, 49 Broadway, the senator expressed his feelings most emphatically.

"It's a lie," he said, bringing his fist lown on his desk with a whack that rattled the inkstands. "I was present in the Senate every day the rate bill was before that body, and I voted in favor of every amendment to it. I did not re main for the final votes as I knew i would pass.

"I cannot deny the fact that I am now an old man, but to say, as that Washington disputch does, that I am a 'dodering nonentity' is a personal out-rage upon a man who has done his share of senatorial work conscientiously in behalf of his constituents. I have many enemies in Washington and New York, both Republicans and Democrats, and they are good bad and indifferent-mostly bad and indifferent.

"It is all most unjust. I have done note for the state during the present ession than I ever did before. eived word last night that my bill for a new federal judgeship for this city had been passed by the House. It will be passed, and a New York city man will be appointed."

NEW HAVEN MYSTERY.

Bedy of a Young Woman Found in West

New Haven, Conn., May 23,-The body of a young woman, about 25 years oll, was found floating in West River yesterday afternoon. She was well dressed and good looking. She had been dead but a short time. Medical Examinor Bartlett was summoned and began an investigation. There were indications that her death had been emused by drugs. The girl's identity has not yet been learned.

Muenter in Madison, Wis.?

Madison, Wis., May 23, It is reported that Erich Maenter, the Harvard instructor who is suspected of the murder of his wife, is in Madison and was seen Monday by people who knew him in Chil-

The police are investigating.

25 YEARS OF

DE LAVAL CREAM SEPARATORS

This is the record of the DE LAVAL machines, which is of itself a mountain of strength beside which the records of all would-be attempting cream separators are but molechills.

It means a feeling of confidence in the purchase of a cream separator to know that you are putting your money into the machine which was FIRST and which has LED in every single step of cream separator IMPROVEMENT, all imitating machines simply taking up such old features as expiring patents leave open to them.

leave open to them.

It means something in putting your money into a cream separator to know that you are not only getting the machine which will DAILY give you the best results, but one of which which will DAILY give you the best results, but one of which there are already many thousands an average of TWENTY YEARS in use, while the average life of imitating machines is not over five years and most of the so-called "cheap" machines of today are not likely to last two years.

A De Laval catalogue, to be had for the asking, must convince you that De Laval machines are not only the best but actually the cheapest.

THE DE LAVAL SEPARATOR CO. NEW ENGLAND AGENTS: STODDARD MFG CO. RUTLAND, VT.

74 CORTLANDT ST., NEW YORK

MARKETS

Quiet With Few Changes This Week

may have an opportunity to see the character of the names appended. Any additional names received up to Monday will be added to the petition by the 15c—Butter at 17 to 18c—

Potatoes Easier. Barre, Vt., May 23, 1906.

Markets are quiet with few changes. Butter and eggs plenty and cheap, Native rhubarb is arriving. We quote wholesale prices as follows: Dressed Pork-Plenty at 712c.

Venls—8 % 60 9c. Western Lambs—1160 12c. Mutton-9@10e, Chickens-17@18c, dressed, St. Johnsbury, May 23.-Veal holds the same as last week, but hogs are The receipts at W. A. Ricker's market for the week ending May 22 were: Poultry-200 pounds, 8@9c.

Lambs-10, 3605c. Hogs-400, 560514c. Cattle-75, 20 te. Calves-650, 2605c. Milch Cows-$2560 50.

IN BOSTON MARKETS.

and Market Is Lower. Boston, May 23.—Receipts of butter ntinue to increase and the market is lower and weak with buyers holding off day night, but there are as yet no in anticipation of still lower quotations. reports of personal injuries. mind after he read a dispatch from Fine full cream new choese is in steady Washington in which it was said, request at full prices, but ordinary lots among other things, that New York go slowly at low figures. Arrivals of state was without representation in the eggs are still heavy, but prices, par-Senate; that Mr. Platt was a senatorial ticularly for choice fresh stock, are well sustained.

firsts 18@19c, creamery seconds 16@17c, creamery thirds 14@15c, castern seconds 16@17c, creamery thirds 14@15c, eastern creamery, best marks 19c, fair to good 16@18c, dairy extra 18c, common to good 15@17c, western ladles 14@15c, packing stock 13@15c, renovated butter 15@17c, boxes and prints 146.20c.

Cheese—New York twins, fancy 134ge, fair to good 114g@124ge, Vermont twins fancy 1369.134ge, fair to good 11@12e, new stock, New York twins, fancy 94g 6/10c, fair to good 8@9c, Wisconsin twins 900 10g

Eggs Fancy hennery 20c, eastern extras 18@19c, common to good 15@17c, western best marks, 17½@18½c, fair to good 16½@17c, fresh laid southern 1512@1614c, western dirties 1314@1414, storage packed western first 18623814c. Note.—The above quotations repre-sent the prices obtained by receivers for wholesale lots, and are not jobbing

STOPS ZION CITY SALES.

Court Restrains Voliva from Disposing of Any Property.

Chicago, May 23.—Judge Landis yes-terdy, in the United States district court issued an order restraining Wilhur G. Voliva and all of Voliva's attorneys, agents and employees from disposing of or in any manner dissipating the estate of Zion City. An injunction previously issued enjoining counsel of Vollva from attempting to secure the dissolution of an injunction in the state Chickens—17@18c, dressed, Eggs—Market weak at 14@15c.
Butter—Easy, choice dairy 17@18c, creamery, 21@22c.

Chickens—17@18c, dressed, court, which prevents Voliva from interfering with Dowie, was dissolved by the court. Judge Landis said that he preferred to preserve the estate under

Potatoes—Easier, 85@90e per bush-An order declaring Dowie, individual-

Ohio Collieries.

Smithfield, O., May 23.—Desertions from the ranks of the non-union men-imported by the United States Coal company have so crippled the available force that the concern was unable to start its mines yesterday as planned. Of the first thirty miners brought in only eight remain. One hundred men were brought from Chicago Monday night. Fourteen of them arrived at Plum Run. Receipts of Butter Continue to Increase delegates to depart. The men now at the mine, sixty in number, are absolutely insufficient to man the machines he union already claims a victory.
There was more firing on the hills Mon-

Another Fire in Mine.

Paris, May 23.- An official report states that fire has again broken out in the Courrieres mines, which were the Quotations follow:

Butter—Creamery, extra Vermont and New Hampshire 20c, northern New York 20c, western 19196 20c, northern creamery ery firsts 1866 19c, western creamery

There are many causes of nervousness, but poor blood heads the list. The doctors call it anemia. The blood lacks red corpuscles. At your first opportunity, consult your doctor about taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Ask him if he has anything better for weakness, debility, nervousness. If he has, take it. If not, take Ayer's Sarsaparilla Get well, that's what you are after. We have no secretal We publish J. C. Ayer Co. the formulae of all our medicines! Lowell, West

Rain Followed by Sunshine High Winds Cooler To-morrow

This is the Kind of Weather that Rots Buildings Unless they are painted with a good sound paint.

The Heath & Milligan

Best Prepared Paint Is The One

For Sale by C. W. Averill & Co., Barre, Vt.